PRE PRIMARY EXPRESS 2024-25

BHAVAN'S MOTTO:

"Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself." –John

Bhavan's approach to kindergarten education reflects a holistic understanding of child development, emphasizing the importance of nurturing all aspects of a child's growth. By providing a supportive environment that encourages social, emotional, cognitive, and physical development, here we help children build a strong foundation for future learning and success.

The focus on play-based, hands-on learning activities in preprimary allows children to explore and engage with their environment in meaningful ways, fostering creativity, problem-solving skills, and self-esteem. Through role play, children not only develop important social and communication skills but also enhance their physical coordination and ability to think critically and solve problems.

Moreover, Bhavan's recognizes the significance of cultural experiences, such as festivals and celebrations, in shaping a child's understanding of their own identity and heritage. By incorporating cultural education into the curriculum, children are given the opportunity to learn about their roots, fostering a sense of pride in their country and culture.

The Preprimary graduation ceremony serves as an exciting milestone for children, marking their transition to a new phase of their education journey. It symbolizes their growth and achievements, instilling in them a sense of confidence and excitement for the future.

Overall, Bhavan's commitment to nurturing children's all-round development aligns with the belief that education goes beyond academic achievement to encompass ethical, social, and aesthetic dimensions. By fostering a supportive and enriching learning environment, it prepares children to become well-rounded individuals capable of meeting the challenges of the future with confidence and resilience.
